Description

A very well made antique 20th century oak coffee table of fine quality, offering both practicality and traditional charm. This attractive piece features two drawers to the upper section, both retaining their original handles and fittings, along with an open shelf to the base for additional storage or display. It stands on elegant turned legs, giving it a classic and well-balanced appearance. The table displays a gorgeous oak grain and warm rich colour throughout, enhancing its natural character and appeal. A very desirable and nicely proportioned example, it is both functional and decorative. Presented in good condition, this beautiful coffee table would look great in any home and makes a perfect addition to a living space.
