Description

A very well made antique 19th century round Victorian side table in mahogany of good quality, offering both elegance and simplicity in design. This attractive piece stands on a finely turned tripod base with elegantly shaped legs, reflecting traditional Victorian craftsmanship. It features a beautiful round top and displays a gorgeous mahogany grain and rich warm colour throughout, giving it a refined and timeless appearance. A very desirable example that has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated, making it a perfect addition to any home.
