Description

A very well made antique 20th century narrow Edwardian bureau in oak, of fine quality and practical design. This attractive piece features multiple open shelves, ideal for displaying books or decorative items, with a beautifully fitted bureau section to the centre. It displays a gorgeous oak grain and warm rich colour throughout, enhancing its traditional Edwardian character. The narrow proportions make it especially well suited to tighter or awkward spaces, offering both style and functionality. Complete with a key, this is a well-presented example in good condition. A highly practical and desirable piece, making a perfect addition to any home.
