Description

A very well made antique 20th century small drop-leaf side table in oak of good quality, offering both practicality and traditional charm. This attractive piece features a classic drop-leaf design, making it versatile and ideal for use in smaller spaces. It stands on elegant turned legs with a supporting stretcher to the base, providing both stability and a well-balanced appearance. The table displays a beautiful oak grain and warm rich colour throughout, enhancing its natural character. A nice-sized and very desirable example, presented in good condition, making a perfect addition to any home.
