Description

A very well made antique 20th century Art Nouveau-style side table in oak of good quality, offering both elegance and practicality. This attractive piece features a single drawer to the upper section, complete with a beautifully decorative handle that enhances its character and period charm. It stands on elegant turned legs with a supporting stretcher, giving it both stability and a classic well-balanced design. The table displays a gorgeous oak grain and rich warm colour throughout, highlighting its natural beauty. A nicely proportioned and very desirable example, presented in good condition, making a perfect addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5634
