Description

A very well made antique 20th century oak open bookcase of good quality, offering both practicality and timeless appeal. Featuring five adjustable shelves, it provides excellent storage and display space for books, decorative pieces, or collectibles. The bookcase displays a gorgeous oak grain and rich warm colour throughout, standing on a sturdy plinth base which adds to its classic design and solid construction. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example of a nice practical size, making it a perfect addition to any home.
