Description

A very well made antique 20th century Edwardian wardrobe in oak of fine quality, offering both charm and practicality in a compact form. This attractive piece features a well-arranged interior with a shelf and a hanging rail, providing useful storage options. The wardrobe is beautifully carved to the front with decorative detailing, showcasing traditional craftsmanship and character. It retains its original handle and key, adding to its authenticity and appeal. Standing on bracket feet, the piece displays a gorgeous oak grain and rich warm colour throughout, with a pleasing shape and well-balanced proportions. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example of a nice small size, making it a perfect addition to any home.
