Description

A very well made antique 20th century carved oak sideboard of good quality, offering both practicality and decorative appeal. This attractive piece features two cupboards, one on either side, each fitted with a single internal shelf, along with three central drawers providing useful storage space. All drawers and cupboards retain their original handles and fittings, highlighting the authenticity and craftsmanship of the piece. It stands on an elegant trestle-type base, adding a distinctive and decorative touch to its overall design. Beautifully carved with high attention to detail, the sideboard displays a gorgeous oak grain and rich warm colour throughout. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example of a nice size, making a perfect addition to any home.
