Description

Gents 1930s Chronometre Cyma wrist watch. The watch has a Swiss hand-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed Cyma, a brand name for Tavannes watches sold through the Schwöb Frères network. The watch measures 30mm diameter excluding the lugs and later winding crown... originally designed as a man's watch, it could be worn by a man or a lady. The case is gold plated and is stamped Non Pareil SFC, a name registered by Schwöb Frères & Cie in 1906. There is some rubbing to the plate in places. The lens is in lovely condition. The dial is signed Chronometre Cyma, The United Africa Co Ltd, a British company which principally traded in West Africa during the 20th century, a significant import-export and trading conglomerate. There are a few hairline cracks to the dial. A later leather strap has been fitted, and it has a deployment clasp. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
