Description

A charming piece of Edwardian silverware. This is a silver mounted post card or letter holder, in the Art Nouveau taste. The silver is pierced and features scrolling and floral motifs and is delightfully embossed to the centre with the words 'Post Cards'. The body is of a dark stained wood, standing on a raised and weighted base for stability. A lovely item, from a bygone era that can be used for its intended purpose, or to hold letters, note paper, tissues or napkins. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £12.00 UK - Royal Mail Special Delivery £22.00 Europe £26.00 Outside Europe (USA will require an additional 10% tariff charge) Condition :- Excellent, with no dents, holes or splits to the silver. There are a couple of small losses to the wooden surround, as shown in the photographs. This is commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- Birmingham 1903. Maker :- Charles Penny Brown. Width :- 16 cms. (widest point). Height :- 8.3 cms. Depth :- 4 cms.
