Description

A late George III line inlaid mahogany corner stand with a hinged double folding scalloped top opening to reveal the original fitted washstand apertures, set over a middle tier with a single drawer, raised on slender legs united by a shaped undertier. Originally intended as a corner washstand, the piece now works particularly well as a bedside or corner stand on a landing or in a hallway. Very good antique condition with some surface wear consistent with age and use. Features a good historic repair to the rear edge of the top. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1810. H: 63.5 W: 70 D: 43 cm Back leg to side leg: 49.5 cm Height extended: 125 cm

Internal Ref: 3717
