Description

Pair of Original Georgian Mahogany D-End Console Tables – Circa 1800. A superb and increasingly rare pair of original Georgian mahogany D-end console / side tables dating to circa 1800. Beautifully proportioned and crafted in solid mahogany, these elegant antique tables retain all the charm and understated sophistication associated with the Georgian period. Each table features a finely figured mahogany top with rounded D-ends above a simple frieze, raised on slender tapering legs typical of late 18th / early 19th century Georgian furniture. The rich colour and patina have developed wonderfully over time, highlighting the quality of the timber and craftsmanship. These tables are highly versatile and can be used separately as console, sofa or side tables, or positioned together as a larger centre or serving table. Features: * Genuine Georgian antique tables * Circa 1800 * Solid mahogany construction * Attractive aged patina and grain * Elegant tapering legs * Classic understated Georgian design * Matching pair. Condition: Good antique condition for age with light signs of use and minor age-related wear consistent with over 200 years of careful ownership. Structurally s...
