Description

A very well made antique 19th century Victorian bookcase in mahogany, of good quality and full of character. This elegant piece features a glazed upper section with three adjustable shelves, offering flexible display space for books or decorative items. The base consists of a two-door cupboard with a well-fitted interior, including two shelves and a useful storage box, providing practical concealed storage. It displays a gorgeous mahogany grain and rich warm colour throughout, enhancing its classic Victorian appeal. Standing on a solid plinth base, the bookcase comes apart into two sections for ease of transport and installation. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example and a perfect addition to any home.
