Description

Hutton-Clarke Antiques takes pride in presenting an exquisite French antique oak coffer, dating back to approximately 1750. This charming piece is attributed to the Caen region of France and stands as a testament to the craftsmanship of its time. The coffer boasts a captivating blend of excellent colour and patination, enhancing its overall allure. Adorned with meticulous chip carving, this small antique masterpiece showcases intricate detailing that adds a touch of sophistication. The coffer retains its original ironware, contributing to its authenticity and historical charm. A true reflection of the elegance of 18th-century French design.
