Description

GEORGE KILBURNE: a very fine quality and beautifully executed WATERCOLOUR of a "Georgian period" interior scene so typical of this highly regarded artist. The scene is a private ball full of elegantly dressed guests, held in a fine Georgian house, with a young lady seated on a Chippendale settee. She has been approached by an equally well-dressed gentleman, perhaps being asked for a dance? We shall never know the outcome... Beautifully painted with great attention to detail, and a fine watercolour. 56 x 49cms including the good ornate gilded frame. Signed lower right corner; circa 1880-1910. * GEORGE GOODWIN KILBURNE was a prominent artist and illustrator renowned for his detailed accurate depiction of upperclass Georgian and Victorian life. Working primarily in watercolours and occasionally in oils he exhibited frequently at the Royal Academy for over 50 years.  This charming watercolour is not on view in the shop; for further details please call 07860 818212, or e-mail: kerry@quietstreetantiques.co.uk
