Description

A beautiful large antique oak gateleg dining table featuring rich oak grain, traditional barley twist legs, and classic English craftsmanship. The table offers a warm natural character with a practical extending design, making it ideal for both everyday use and entertaining. When extended, the table provides a generous dining surface while folding neatly down when space is limited. The solid oak construction and timeless proportions make it a versatile piece suited to traditional, farmhouse, cottage, or period interiors. The figured oak top displays attractive natural grain patterns and aged patina developed over decades of use. Open Width: 151 cm In very good vintage condition with age related wear, marks, and patina consistent with use. Structurally solid and sturdy with smooth opening gateleg action.

Internal Ref: B116
