Description

An antique unusual fixed 19th century French walnut card table, of square form, fitted with four drawers, one to each side. Unlike the more commonly found folding examples, this is a fixed-top card table, making it both an unusual and practical piece. It can be used traditionally for card games, while also functioning very well as a centre table, offering useful storage and a strong decorative presence. The piece stands on elegant cabriole legs, giving it a refined profile and balanced proportions. A versatile and decorative piece, well suited for use in a living space, hallway, or games room.
