Description

A tall, one piece graduated chest of drawers in solid walnut, with pine and walnut drawer linings. The pine drawer sides are dovetailed and mitred - a feature I have not seen before, but speaks to the quality of the piece which is incredibly heavy (and solid). Above the middle top drawer there is an interior 'secret shelf'. The whole is raised on stylish, swept bracket feet and this feature and the 'one piece' construction suggest an Irish (or possibly even American) heritage. Mid 19th century. Restoration: Small repair to front of right hand bracket foot and the whole cleaned and polished
