Description

A late 18th century (circa 1800) French walnut side table with superb original rich patina. This table consists of a finely figured walnut top with a moulded edge. This leads down to a long pine lined walnut drawer also with a moulded edge with steel escutcheon and original lock and key leading down to a shaped and moulded frieze, this also carries round to the sides. The table is supported by four elegant cabriole tapering legs, also all having a moulded edge. This table is in very good condition for age, has a wonderful original patina, is of stable construction and can go straight into a home. Size: Height: 28" / 71cm Width: 39" / 99cm Depth: 23.25" / 59cm
