Description

This handsome William IV mahogany chiffonier is raised upon a plinth base and offers both elegance and practical storage. The chiffonier features two paneled cupboard doors, opening to reveal two fully adjustable shelves, ideal for a variety of storage needs. The doors are fitted with turned knobs and are enriched with fine inlaid and carved detailing, adding depth and character to the piece. Above, the superstructure is supported by shaped uprights and finished with attractive carved decoration to the top, reflecting the refined craftsmanship associated with the William IV period. Presented in good condition, this quality mahogany chiffonier would make a superb addition to a dining room, hallway, or drawing room.
