Description

Here we have a wonderful Victorian table from the stables of Holkham Hall c1850. As you can see the table has great colour and patina. The thick pine top was covered in cloth and the table was likely for polishing the brassware on tack or for tack its self. The base is in original scumble paint to mimic Oak. Made as it is for a purpose the table has four strong legs and decorative front faux panel frieze. A super period table that would make a great side hall lamp or console table in fantastic retail condition ready for your home. The dimensions are approx 133 cm long 33 cm deep 75 cm high.
