Description

High Quality Regency Rosewood Box Dating From Around 1820 A beautifully constructed box with highly figured rosewood, turned details to the mouldings & standing on turned feet. The box has all its original fittings, with exceptional bronze lifting handles to the ends & a Bramah of London working lock & key. The interior of the box is lined with marbled paper & the inside of the lid with polished rosewood. Being generously proportioned, the box would make an ideal piece for storing many different precious things. Offered in fine, fully restored showroom condition. As with most of our small items we can send this item by insured parcel post for quick delivery.
