Description

A superb Queen Anne walnut secretaire chest, dating to circa 1710, of outstanding colour and quality. Constructed in two sections, this exceptional early 18th century piece is beautifully figured throughout with rich walnut and fine feather banded decoration. The fall-front opens to reveal a beautifully fitted interior with an arrangement of small drawers, pigeon holes, and multiple concealed secret drawers. The writing surface features a new hand-dyed green leather inset and benefits from an angle adjustable support mechanism. With working lock and key. Below are two short over two long graduated drawers with attractive brass handles and feather banded edges, all raised on shaped bracket feet. Presented in very good condition, this is a fine and highly functional Queen Anne bureau chest with excellent proportions, wonderful patina, and remarkable craftsmanship throughout.
