Description

A Robert Dudley Best 'Bestlite' table lamp. Marked 'Bestlite', with curved chrome arm, cream lacquered shade and matching circular base. Originally designed in the 1930s, the Bestlite has become one of the most iconic examples of early modernist lighting. The clean lines and industrial influence keep it feeling incredibly functional, whilst the soft cream finish gives this example a much warmer and more decorative feel. Hobo loves because: there's something really cool about this lamp. The curve and the colour.
