A fine quality set of four George II style mahogany dining chairs, beautifully constructed with elegantly shaped backs and finely pierced vase form splats. The gently serpentine cresting rails are richly carved with stylised floral and shell decoration, giving the chairs a refined and decorative appearance. Raised on well-proportioned cabriole front legs terminating in carved claw and ball feet, the knees are adorned with bold acanthus leaf carving, while the rear legs retain elegant swept supports. The chairs are fitted with generously proportioned drop-in upholstered seats in a striking golden velvet type fabric which contrasts particularly well against the rich mahogany frames.
