Description

Pair of 19th Century William Morris Antique Tabard Inn Chairs. A wonderful pair of ample 19th century solid antique oak carver dining armchairs, by William Morris in 1870 for the Tabard Inn, Bedford Gardens, Chiswick. They are both in superb, strong and original condition, a very shapely design with open arms, original rush seats and all in the original finish. The Tabard Inn was designed by the architect Robert Norman Shaw who then asked Morris & Co to furnish the interior with various seating such as these carver armchairs, stand chairs and settles. The seats are 44cm high. Dimensions Height: 100cm (39.68") Width: 61cm (24.21") Depth: 51cm (20.24")
