Description

This is a very fine example of a gents classic wristwatch made by the world renowned premier Swiss maker Omega. The watch is the Omega Constellation Daydate automatic from 1968 with the top of the range calibre 751 fully automatic certified chronometer grade movement. The model reference number is 168.019. The diamond bright cut sparkle textured dial with day and date facility is totally original, unmarked and perfect. Overall the watch is in near mint original condition with just a very few minor marks to the case. This is one of the best and most original examples we have seen. It comes with the very rare Omega riveted stretch link bracelet, it is in superb condition with an extension section in the clasp. Without the clasp extension it will fit a wrist up to 7 1/4 inches, with the extension fitted it fits a wrist up to 7 3/4 inches. We can also fit a leather strap if you prefer. As you would expect the watch is fully marked on the dial, movement and case. Omega are one of the most exclusive watchmakers in the world and this watch certainly has that understated elegance that whispers class. The watch case measures 35mm in diameter not including the crown. Th...
