Description

This exquisite pair of Chinese cloisonné enamel vases, dating back to circa 1900, showcases the intricate craftsmanship of traditional artisans. Each vase features a rich black background adorned with vibrant floral motifs in shades of pink, blue, and green, meticulously outlined by delicate gold filigree. The combination of bold colors and intricate designs exemplifies the elegance of cloisonné art. Originally intended for display, these vases have been converted into stylish lamps, merging functionality with cultural heritage. Their timeless beauty makes them a stunning addition to any decor, reflecting the rich history and artistry of Chinese craftsmanship. Batch 86 G9541/25 UNKZ
