Description

Manufactured in Great Britain, this clever campaign-style piece features a fully detachable, dual-purpose top and a completely collapsible base, offering practical versatility for modern homes. One side of the top presents a polished solid oak surface suitable for use as a tea table or side table. The reverse side features a traditional green felt/baize lining for cards and board games. The oak legs operate on a central pivot system. When the top is removed, the base folds completely flat for straightforward storage in a cupboard or behind furniture, and the top slots secure in the folded frame. The frame retains its original brass maker's label. Healthy wood with a natural aged patina, minor surface wear and blemishes to the baize, a small missing piece of wood to the top, all well consistent with use and age.
