Description

An absolutely gorgeous vintage pendant. The phenomenal black opal displays an impressive play of colour, with clear and dramatic flashes of green and blue. The stone is secured in a milgrained platinum rubover setting atop a closed yellow gold gallery, with a bright and lively transitional cut diamond – also rubover set in platinum and yellow gold – hanging from a 'V' bale. Please choose a 16" or 18" 18k yellow gold chain (this is included in the price). Accompanied by a report from Gemmological Certification Services (GCS) stating the opal is natural and shows no indication of treatment. Cut: Oval cabochon opal and an old European cut diamond. Colour: The diamond is G. Clarity: The diamond is SI2. Carat: The opal is approximately 2.80 carat. The diamond is approximately 0.15 carat. Circa: 1910. Measurements: The opal is approximately 12.3 x 9.0mm. From the bottom of the opal to the top of the diamond is 34mm. Weight: The pendant, not including a chain, is 2.00 grams. Metal: 18k yellow gold and platinum. Tested with a Niton DXL Precious Metal Analyzer. Video: To view a video of this pendant recorded in daylight, please either contact us or copy / pa...
