Description

A very well made antique 20th century Edwardian sideboard in oak, of good quality and full of character. This attractive piece features two drawers to the upper section and a double-door cupboard below, both retaining their original handles and fittings, highlighting its authenticity and craftsmanship. The sideboard is further enhanced by a raised gallery to the top, adding elegance and structure to the design. It stands on turned legs with a supporting stretcher, giving it both stability and a classic Edwardian appearance. Displaying a gorgeous oak grain and warm rich colour throughout, this piece is beautifully finished and well detailed. Presented in good condition, it is a very desirable example and a perfect addition to any home.
