Description

Antique 20th Century Edwardian display cabinet in mahogany, well made and of good quality. Elegantly designed and richly detailed, the piece stands on attractive cabriole legs with distinctive claw and ball feet, adding both character and refinement. The cabinet features a beautifully glazed front, opening to reveal two glass interior shelves, ideal for displaying ornaments, collectibles, or fine glassware. A raised gallery to the top further enhances its decorative presence and period charm. The mahogany displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the quality craftsmanship and elegant Edwardian styling. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and visually striking example. A beautiful display cabinet, perfect addition to any home.
