Description

A charming Antique 19th Century Victorian bench in pitch pine, very well made and of fine quality. A unique and highly desirable example, it features a compact trestle-type design that combines simplicity with strong period character. The bench displays gorgeous grain and warm natural colour throughout, highlighting the beauty of the pitch pine and its solid, honest construction. Its small size makes it particularly versatile and easy to place within a variety of interiors. Presented in great condition, this is a very attractive and practical Victorian piece with timeless appeal. A solid and characterful bench, perfect addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5673
