Description

A charming Antique 20th Century small open bookcase in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. Compact and elegant in design, the piece features two drawers to the top fitted with their original decorative handles, providing useful storage. Below is an open section with a single adjustable shelf to the centre, offering flexible display or storage options. The bookcase stands on attractive bracket feet, enhancing its classic proportions. Beautifully inlaid with satinwood stringing, the piece displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the quality of the mahogany. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable example thanks to its small and versatile size. A practical and elegant piece, perfect addition to any home.
