Description

A fine Antique 20th Century Edwardian bureau in mahogany, very well made and of fine quality. Elegant and practical in design, the bureau features a beautifully fitted interior to the upper section, providing a charming and functional writing space with useful storage compartments. Below are three drawers, all fitted with their original brass handles, adding to the piece's authentic character and timeless appeal. The bureau stands on classic bracket feet, completing its refined Edwardian silhouette. The mahogany displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the quality craftsmanship and natural beauty of the timber. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and well-made example. A beautiful and functional piece, perfect addition to any home.
