Description

A superb Antique 19th Century Victorian Savonarola chair in oak, very well made and of good quality. Exceptionally decorative and striking in design, this impressive chair features a beautiful brown leather seat, complementing the rich tones of the oak perfectly. Beautifully carved throughout, the chair showcases fine Victorian craftsmanship with intricate detailing and a stunning Savonarola form that gives it great presence and character. The oak displays gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, further enhancing its timeless appeal. Solidly constructed and presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and distinctive example that truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated. A remarkable statement piece and a perfect addition to any home.
