Description

An excellent set of ten Wheeler of Arncliffe dining chairs, comprising eight side chairs and two ample carvers. The frames are made in solid mahogany with the maker's characteristic shaped crest rails, pierced splats, and refined proportions, the set exemplifies the balanced craftsmanship associated with Wheeler's work. The seats are traditionally upholstered and can be easily recovered to suit any interior, making the suite adaptable to both period and contemporary settings. All chairs are sturdy, well-matched, and in good antique condition, offering a complete and cohesive dining set ready for everyday use.
