Description

A fine Antique 18th Century Georgian writing table in mahogany, very well made and of excellent quality. Elegantly proportioned, the piece features a single drawer to the front fitted with its original decorative brass handles and fittings, retaining its authentic Georgian character. The table displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the quality of the mahogany. A practical drop leaf to the back allows the writing surface to be extended, creating additional depth when required. It stands on simple yet refined square legs, contributing to its clean and balanced Georgian design. Well made and presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable example with both charm and versatility. A beautiful and functional piece, perfect addition to any home.
