Description

A handsome early-mid 19thth century mahogany bowth front chest of drawers in wonderful antique condition. The drawer fronts are veneered in wellth figured mahogany, and fitted with elegant brass embossed oval backplate handles. The graduated arrangement offers excellent storage, each drawer running smoothly and closing neatly. The chest stands on turned legs with brass cup castors. As with all genuine antiques, there are minor imperfections, but this remains a solid, wellth made chest with many years of use ahead of it. Internal reference : SAI4094
