Description

A fine Georgian mahogany secrétaire of elegant proportions, offered in excellent antique condition and complete with a working key. The piece separates into two sections for ease of movement. The upper cabinet is crowned with a moulded cornice and fitted with beautifully inlaid oval-panel doors, opening to an adjustable shelved interior. The base includes a fall-front writing drawer with green baize and fitted interior, above two full-width drawers with original brass handles. The mahogany has a warm, even patina, and while minor age-related marks are present, it remains a solid, well-cared-for and highly practical Georgian piece. Internal reference : SAI4050
