Description

A superb Antique 19th Century carved Victorian armchair in oak, very well made and of fine quality. Richly decorative throughout, the chair is beautifully crafted with highly detailed barley twist turnings, showcasing exceptional Victorian craftsmanship and attention to detail. The piece is upholstered in a striking blue fabric, offering both comfort and contrast against the warm oak frame. It stands on elegant supports with brass casters for ease of movement, and features sturdy supporting stretchers for added strength and stability. Well made and presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable Victorian armchair with strong decorative presence and timeless appeal. A beautiful and characterful piece, perfect addition to any home.
