Description

Very stylish Art Deco dressing stool dating to the 1930s, can be used for dressing table or footstool. The woodwork is fully restored, it has its old original upholstery which you may want to change, a neutral plain cream or perhaps something with a deco pattern would look great. Wonderful and iconic shape to the sides. Offered to you in fully restored and functioning condition. A rare and elegant piece that captures the essence of early 20th-century design while remaining functional and stylish. Lovely size piece that will easily integrate with most settings. Made in England, circa 1930.
