Description

A charming Antique 20th Century Edwardian drop-leaf side table in oak, very well made and of fine quality. Featuring a single drawer to the upper section fitted with its original knob handles, this attractive piece stands on elegant turned legs united by a useful lower shelf to the base. The beautifully carved drawer front displays a high level of craftsmanship and attention to detail, while the oak showcases gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout. Designed with practicality in mind, the table can be extended with two drop leaves, one to either side, making it both versatile and decorative. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable Edwardian example with timeless appeal. A beautiful and functional piece, perfect addition to any home.
