Description

A fine Antique 19th Century Victorian writing table in mahogany, very well made and of excellent quality. Elegantly proportioned, the piece features two drawers to the front fitted with their original knob handles, offering useful storage while retaining its authentic period character. The table is finished with a raised gallery to the top, adding both charm and practicality, and stands on attractive turned legs that provide a classic Victorian silhouette. The mahogany displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing its warm and traditional appeal. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and well-made example with timeless style. A beautiful and functional writing table, perfect addition to any home.
