Description

A fine Antique 18th Century Georgian chest of drawers in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. Traditionally arranged with five drawers in total, configured as two smaller drawers over three graduated larger drawers, all fitted with their original brass handles, this piece offers both practicality and timeless Georgian elegance. The chest stands on classic bracket feet and showcases gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the natural beauty of the mahogany. Its clean lines and balanced proportions reflect the understated sophistication of the period. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable Georgian example with strong decorative appeal. A beautiful and functional piece, perfect addition to any home.
