Description

A good example of a mahogany lamp table dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It has a rectangular top with moulded edge and stands on a turned column with tripod splayed legs. It is in good condition for its age with a lovely rich colour. There are some minor signs of age and use, some small marks and knocks and a couple of small chips around the edge but nothing untoward or detrimental and it is strong and sturdy. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
