Description

This fabulous highly decorative French tradesman's sign which is made of metal has a painted brown background with beautifully hand painted wording to the front in orange / brown that reads Entrepise de Peinture, L Zeyer, Rombas. This antique trade sign that dates from the late 19th / early 20th century would have been fixed to a wall to advertise a French painter's business. The oval shape and wonderful rustic charm with flaky paint that shows years of aging and wear all add to the decorative look. Being a good size with great colours and patina this makes it a super decorative piece for the home, bar or restaurant. Can be mounted on a wall by the fixing holes or looks great just resting against one. Material: Painted metal. Date: Late 19th / early 20th century. Dimensions: Width: 72 cm (28 1/2"). Height: 36.5 cm (14 1/4"). Weight: 1.75 Kg. Condition: Well used antique condition with wear, knocks and flaking paint leaving a wonderful decorative look. Please see pictures. Please note that only the sign is included and any other items in the pictures are for scale only.
