Description

charming and characteristic antique 19th century French provincial oak farmhouse table. The farmhouse table has a rectangular five plank top, with single frieze drawer to one side. Raised on square tapering legs with signs of some historic repairs, adding to its charm. It can seat four to six chairs as a wonderful looking kitchen table or alternatively it lends itself as a nice size desk, as demonstrated in the pictures. In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age as can be expected. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches, along with evidence of historic woodworm to top (pictured), however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. It is structurally solid and ready for home use. A truly lovely example of it's kind. All prices quoted exclude delivery costs. Delivery costs for the shipping of this item to anywhere mainland in the UK is £75. Certain postcode exclusions and surcharges apply - see the "Ordering & Delivery" tab on our website for more details. For any overseas deliveries, please contact us for a quote.
