Description

A stunning looking 18th century Dutch antique marquetry decorated oak bombe chest of drawers. It has a moulded edge above four bombe shaped oak drawers with the original ornate brass handles, standing on wonderful looking claw and ball feet united by a shaped carved crested apron. The marquetry decorations depict floral tulip patterns and crests, with the top also incorporating two birds either side of a large crest. The colours and the patina of this item of truly striking, making it both a decorative and functional piece of furniture. There are signs of age, some cracks/historic repairs to the back and sides, various small knocks, scratches, and marks as can be expected for its age, but nothing detrimental and structurally sound. It has been lightly cleaned and is ready for use. All prices quoted exclude delivery costs. Delivery costs for the shipping of this item to anywhere mainland in the UK is £100. Certain postcode exclusions and surcharges apply - see the "Ordering & Delivery" tab on our website for more details. For any overseas deliveries, please contact us for a quote.
