Description

A 19th century British School oil on canvas study of a horse, presented in a gilt frame. The composition depicts a dark brown horse standing in profile on a slight earthen rise, overlooking rolling green fields. A rustic wooden fence sits in the foreground, with a soft blue sky and light drifting clouds completing the background. The painting is executed in a naturalistic manner, capturing the form and stance of the horse with a calm rural setting typical of 19th century British sporting and landscape studies. A decorative and traditional piece, suitable for display in a country interior, study, or hallway.
